Chem-Academy: About us

Chem-Academy provides conferences, seminars and workshops on current topics in the chemical and pharmaceutical industries. Experienced speakers from operational practice, government/authorities and academia deliver the latest findings on current issues in their respective fields. Experts from the entire pipeline from manufacturing to pharmaceutical and/or chemical traders to downstream users and service providers are represented at our events. Chem-Academy delivers specialist answers and advice that go beyond the general helpdesks, FAQ pages or complex legal texts.

Sponsoring

Use our event to present your company, your solutions and services and to make new contacts. We offer you a variety of opportunities to contribute as an exhibitor, sponsor or with a content contribution. We are looking forward to your contact!
